smile on his face and makes everyone days better. He was born in Arunachal Pradesh which is far from school and newly enrolled at school. He saw that our school's facilities were better than those of his previous one. Pema found that teachers are so caring towards students. Black and white is his favorite color. he claimed that white attracted him more when he saw it .He loves to eat veg momo and which is famous food in our country. He said that when he eats momo, he gets satisfied and it is very delicious. Maths is his favorite subject as there are many different learning methods in maths. Time passed by so quickly and simple to understand. He enjoys playing football on the school playground with his friend in his free time. Ronaldo is his favorite player. He is also proficient at singing Tibetan songs.

Being from a village in Dirang (Arunachal Pradesh) it was very difficult for Pema parents to afford a life with proper education for him. Moreover a Farmer being an only source of income for the whole family was very difficult as they could hardly make the daily needs meet. His mother took care of the housework, and he is currently studying in his opportunity class. We study maths, Tibetan language and Basic English in opportunity class.

Please render us your kind support for this needy child. Your generosity will be highly obliged always!

TYPE OF SCHOOL : Class 7, Upper TCV, Dharamsala

FATHER'S NAME : Tenzin Chodup Occupation: Photographer

MOTHER'S NAME : Dechen Choedon Occupation: Housewife

LIFE STORY OF TENZIN MINDOL & THE NEED FOR SPONSORSHIP:

Eleven-year-old Tenzin Mindol joined the care of TCV in March 2024. Prior to her enrollment at TCV, she attended a TCV Day School in McLeod Ganj, Dharamsala, that was up-grade to the 5th grade. She is the eldest of three children in her family, with a younger sister aged 3 and a brother aged 5. Her father works as a photographer for the Exile Government in the Department of Information and International Relations, while her mother is a homemaker, dedicating herself to the care of the children and household without contributing financially.

Tenzin Mindol was admitted to TCV under a special category as a child of a Tibetan Exile Government staff member. She is described as cheerful, confident, charming, and sociable. Adjusting to boarding life, she is diligently learning daily chores such as bed-making, laundry, and shoe polishing tasks, which she did not perform at home. Despite these challenges, she enjoys school, particularly Tibetan subject and physical education classes. In her free time, she indulges in reading and painting to express her creativity.

Despite the family's modest financial means, her parents provide Tenzin Mindol with guidance and support and constant counsellings. She aspires to become a Tibetan Traditional Doctor and is determined to pursue her dream. Blue is her favorite color. She has been a vegetarian since the age of five and now wishes to adopt a vegan lifestyle. Tenzin Mindol resides in home number 31, along with 30 other children, under the loving care of foster parents.
